

travelled to Jerusalem to observe special feasts. The psalm speaks of finding springs in the Valley of Baca and ever-increasing strength until reaching Zion (v.7). It paints a picture of joy in the journey, not just in reaching the destination.

God's travel book, the Bible, urges us to savour the journey that is our lives. When we find ourselves travelling a difficult road, we can resist and complain, or we can set our hearts on pilgrimage. Where we walk today is just as important as where we will be tomorrow. –DCM

*He gives me work that I may seek His rest,
He gives me strength to meet the hardest test;
And as I walk in providential grace,
I find the joy to complete the race.*

Unspeakable joy not only awaits us in heaven—
there's joy in the journey.

Pilgrimage

Blessed is the man whose strength is in You, whose heart is set on pilgrimage. –Psalm 84:5

Travel books focus on reaching a destination and having an enjoyable time when you arrive. But a new volume called The Art Of Pilgrimage looks beyond that perspective to consider the deeper significance of travel. "A journey without challenge has no meaning," writes the author. "One without purpose has no soul." In his book, the journey is as important as the destination.

Is that how we view our daily lives? Or have we become so obsessed with getting beyond the struggles of everyday life that the journey is little more than a process to be endured?

Psalm 84 profiles a person whose strength is in God and "whose heart is set on pilgrimage" (v.5). The ancient Jews experienced this as they

A Heart to Worship

(Mark 12:29-30) "... The first of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one. {30} 'And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment."

(John 15:1) ""I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser."

(John 15:4-7) ""Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. {5} "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. {6} "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. {7} "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you."

(John 15:9-11) ""As the Father loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love. {10} "If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

[11] "These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full."

2. _____, verses 5-7

(Revelation 21:2-3) "Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. {3} And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God."

(Jeremiah 9:23-24) "... Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, Let not the mighty man glory in

(Isaiah 40:31) "But those who wait on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint."

(2 Corinthians 4:16-18) "Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. {17} For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, {18} while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal."
