

Psalm 119:97-104 – Oh, How I Love Your Law

Intro – Believers love Gods Word for many reasons. One reason is the fact that it works so effectively in our lives, not only by bringing us to salvation, but by making us wise for life and for sanctification. In Psalm 119:97-104, the Psalmist is going to commend the Scriptures to us by highlighting eight things that it does in his own life.

- I. Scripture has Gained His _____ (v. 97).
- II. Scripture Makes Him _____ (v. 98).
- III. Scripture Gives Him _____ No _____ Can (v. 99).
- IV. Scripture Gives Him Understanding that the _____ Cannot (v. 100).
- V. Scripture has Taught Him that there is a _____ that only Comes from _____ (v. 101).
- VI. Scripture has helped him _____ (v. 102).
- VII. Scripture has Become a _____ to Him (v. 103).
- VIII. Scripture has Made Him _____ unto _____ (v. 104).

Psalm 119:97-104 – Oh, How I Love Your Law

Intro – Believers love Gods Word for many reasons. One reason is the fact that it works so effectively in our lives, not only by bringing us to salvation, but by making us wise for life and for sanctification. In Psalm 119:97-104, the Psalmist is going to commend the Scriptures to us by highlighting eight things that it does in his own life.

- I. Scripture has Gained His _____ (v. 97).
- II. Scripture Makes Him _____ (v. 98).
- III. Scripture Gives Him _____ No _____ Can (v. 99).
- IV. Scripture Gives Him Understanding that the _____ Cannot (v. 100).
- V. Scripture has Taught Him that there is a _____ that only Comes from _____ (v. 101).
- VI. Scripture has helped him _____ (v. 102).
- VII. Scripture has Become a _____ to Him (v. 103).
- VIII. Scripture has Made Him _____ unto _____ (v. 104).